The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin

Most people get that far-away look when the issue of Fair Trial - Free Press is opened to conversation.

This includes lawyers and newsmen — both of which should have a high plateau of interest because involved in the issue is a new way of life for them — and for the non-criminal public, a further erosion of their Constitutional rights.

The father of the new philosophy by which this loss could occur is Justice Paul C. Reardon, of the Supreme Judicial Court of Massachusetts. His studies resulted in the Reardon Report, an idea, which when adopted by the judiciary of the various states, will have a censoring effect upon the free press. He produced the Report, he said, to ensure a Fair Trial.

In a revealing book published by American Enterprise Institute for Public Policy Research, the arguments presented by Judge Reardon in support of his Report are listed. He was confronted in the fall of 1968 by E. Clifton Daniel, managing editor of the NEW YORK TIMES. Daniel, some will recall, married Margaret Truman several years ago. Daniel argued against the Report.

These men presented opposite points of view and then debated the issue.

The problem, simply put, is this: the First Amendment to the Constitution guarantees freedom of the press; the Sixth Amendment assures everyone the right to a speedy and public trial before an impartial jury. These two pledges are difficult to balance when interpreted on one hand by the American press, and on the other by the legal profession. The problem was not resolved in the debate although the debaters were eloquent, well-informed — and combative.

Judge Reardon had chaired the Advisory Committee on Fair Trial - Free Press of the American Bar Association Project on Minimum Standards for Criminal Justice. His committee's Report limiting the release and publication of crime news was adopted by the Bar's House of Delegates in February, 1968.

The Report met with massive resistance in the editorial world. Clifton Daniel, highly respected by both professions as a distinguished newsman with wide experience as a correspondent in the U. S. and Europe, sharply focused this opposition.

Each debater appeared once before a seminar panel of experts at The George Washington University, then met face-to-face for rebuttals at the National Press Club before television cameras.

Judge Reardon supporting the restrictions adopted by the House of Delegates says they stem from "abuses perpetrated allegedly in the name of free press which tend to deny the individual right to fair trial."

His committee's recommendations, made after nearly four years of research, placed restrictions upon attorneys, police and trial judges. And through the limited use of the judicial contempt power, restrictions are also placed upon anyone (including the press) who disseminates information for publication, willfully designed to affect the outcome of the trial, or on anyone violating a judicial order made in an effort to ensure a fair trial.

Lawyers would be barred from releasing information or opinion that would interfere with a fair trial. They could not give out details of an accused person's prior criminal record, the existence or content of any confession, the refusal of the accused to make a statement, the performance of any examination or test, the identity or credibility of prospective witnesses, the possibility of a plea of guilty to the charge, or any opinion on the accused's guilt or innocence.

Lawyers could be reprimanded, suspended, or even disbarred for violation.

Judge Reardon recommends similar internal regulations

GROVE BUSINESS GROWS: Edward A. "Ted" Saunders, president of Magnetic Devices, Inc., 7564 Broadway, Lemon Grove tests the control unit on an inductance bridger that is part of the process in the making of very small magnetic component parts for aircraft industry and parts that are used in the lighting industry. Ted and his partner Steve Babcock employ 12 persons at the Grove installation. Saunders pointed out that business had jumped some 40 per cent during the past year. He said, "We try to be as competitive as we can. This along with the growth of the electronic field helps to explain our rapid growth."

Sups OK 9,700 Acres For Ranch Preserves

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — Three agricultural preserves were formed on Monday by the county board of supervisors.

These first three preserves could be the forerunners of many more, but also might be the only ones until there is a change in state legislation to allow a spreading of the costs beyond local districts.

Supervisor Frank Gibson joined Robert Dent and De Graff Austin in voting for the three preserves. Dent and Gibson were casting their last votes and were replaced on the board by the two ex-San Diego city councilmen who defeated them, Harry Scheidle and Jack Walsh.

As Supervisors Robert Cozens and Henry Boney have opposed the method being used (but not the concept).

The three preserves totaling 9,700 are: Paul Ecke, 900 acres of flower growing land in Encinitas. David Mendenhall, 800 acres of valley grazing land on Palomar Mountain. Rancho Jamul, 8,000 acres near Jamul on Highway 94 running about 250 cattle.

County Counsel Bertram McLees told County News Assn. that he knows of no way that the newly-constituted board could rescind the action, although it could give a notice of non-renewal, but this would leave the three preserves ten years to run.

In a preserve, the land is assessed on the basis of its average production value (whether actually production or not), instead of on its market value as all other land is assessed.

Citizen opposition has been greatest in the San Dieguito area, which is somewhat odd since the Ecke land is about the only property there that could qualify for a preserve.

The hearing on the preserves had been closed and no new testimony was accepted by the board. This led to the filing of a letter from Assemblyman John Stull of Leucadia which took about the same position that Cozens and Boney had taken.

Austin said flatly that the people in a district where preserves are formed would have to expect an increase in taxes to make up for the lost revenue.

Dent said their county had more or less committed itself because of the long period of study.

Gibson said nothing, except for his yes vote.

The next set of hearings before the board is on Jan. 27 at 2 p.m.

The Daley brothers, Lawrence and Donald, have placed in the agricultural preserve agreement a clause that commits them to replace to the Jamul-Los Flores School District the sum that they would have paid under the regular assessment system.

This amount is to be not less than $10,983.

Boney said last week that the period of ten years for the agreements appeared to him to be too short. He said that some owners might well be in a position to develop their land for other uses after ten years.

Cozens said that the further the county has gotten into the preserve situation, the more problems it has found. He said that at a meeting of supervisors from throughout California, the officials from some counties which already have preserves warned of pitfalls.

Trustees Expel 25 Students

Twenty-five more students have been expelled in the Grossmont Union High School District for involvement with narcotics, marijuana, dangerous drugs or inhalants.

The action came after trustees of the district had met with parents pleaing their cases. The board met Monday night and continued for a Tuesday night session.

The board action picked up the number to 77 expulsions this year in Grossmont Union High School District schools. In all 147 have been expeled during the last 18 months.

Of the 25 expelled this week, seven had been involved with the sale, use or possession of marijuana. All but one of the others were expelled for possession or use of dangerous drugs or narcotics.

Students ejected, represented schools from Santana, Continuation, Granite Hills, Mt. Miguel, Monte Vista, Helix, El Capitan, and Grossmont High Schools.

In all, 17,000 students are in the district. The board has maintained the stiff policy in an attempt to lower the number of users of drugs and marijuana in the district.

Dr. Austin Sellery, superintendent of the district, along with his staff have been investigating other methods of dealing with students who are involved in these activities.

In a meeting Tuesday of the teachers from the District, they postponed a vote for support of the administrations policy. The teachers had held off on a decision earlier in a December meeting.

Representing teachers in the district is a 22-member board acting as an executive council for some 536 teachers.

A motion had been made asking all concerned teachers be given the names of all students expelled for drug violations.

Trustees have reinstated students from time to time, students who have been involved and bounced from school. In September, 1968 some 23 students were allowed to return to district school rooms.

School District Claims Unfair Water Charges

La Presa Junior High Costs Irk Officials

By JACK POLLARD
News Editor

The already long delayed construction of the La Presa Junior High School has been brought into the limelight again as members of the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District Board of Education have declared war on the La Presa County Water District.

The board members voted to send a protest to the Water District's Board of Directors who have the power to levey water-sewer connection fees.

The board raised the hands up in the air as they let out a loud scream at the Monday night school board meeting when they were haded a letter from the La Presa County Water District informing them that a charge of $151,442 would be necessary for water hookup at the new junior high school.

This figure represents one that was six times higher than an original estimate of $25,000. That was presented to the board some time ago, according to Supt. Glenn Murdock.

The Kempton Elementary school, adjacent to the new school site was charged $12,500 for their water connection, when that unit was constructed.

Alex Struthers, a member of the board of directors of the water district said that the Kempton Elementary school cost is correct in as far as the school district was charged $12,500.

He did say that the figure was not as high as it should have been and that if the water district desired to bring it back into proper prespective that it could.

Struthers said, "Even though we could do this legally, we have no desires nor intentions to do any such thing."

NEVER TOLD OF $25,000 FIGURE TO SCHOOL PEOPLE

The water district official continued, "We never told the school district that they would be charged $25,000 for their water system installation charge.

"What we did tell them around August or September of 1968, was that a capacity charge in the neighborhood of $145,000 would be necessary to carry a pro-rated cost as being involved in part of Improvement Districts No. 1 and No. 2 at La Presa.

"The school district told us that they had budgeted some $25,000 for cost of the water system.

"Since that time, and up until now, nothing was said either publically or privately to water district board members," Struthers concluded.

The charge for the basic service connection fee was devised when the total 373 acres for the school site was computed on a pro-rated cost per acre of the overall cost of the improvement district.

Struthers said, "Our board has given the La Mesa-Spring Valley School District every consideration that we could in the paying for the basic service connection fee.

The State would pick up three-quarters of the cost on a long term loan basis for the school for a period over 25 years. The other 25 per cent of the cost could be amortized by the school district over another 25 to 30 years.

"This would mean that the water district would bill the school $103 per month over a period of 30 years, interest free to pay for the remainder."

OBLIGATED BY LAW

Struther pointed out that "We feel that we are obligated by law to charge every person and every entity within the improvement district a fair share of the costs.

"The improvement district has been around for six years.

"At that time, six years ago, the people in the La Presa area formed two districts covering exactly the same area, for improvement of their water and sewer facilities, costing $2.1 million.

Landscape Project Help Total Nears 700

The subscription campaign by which the Home of Guiding Hands will benefit, got off to a nice start as the holidays ended.

This week, 71 more names were added to the list of 620, to bring the new total to 691.

In addition, one subscriber, Mrs. Mel Hammerstein, sent in five dollars cash. All of this will go to the Home.

As current readers know, the Home of Guiding Hands is a mentally retarded facility in Lakeside, built with private funds. It is a non-profit organization dedicated to the care and treatment of those who are severely retarded.

Just prior to the holidays, Vice President Humphrey's son and daughter-in-law were visitors at the home — so wide had the facilities fame spread.

A portion of the subscription fee, that above sales production costs, is presented to the Home in the name of those taking part in the subscription drive. The proceeds will be used for landscaping. Several weeks ago this publication ran a list of the names and sizes of the shrubs that were needed to complete the project.

This story is retold weekly because 70-125 new readers are added to the ranks each week and it is for these that some of the material is repeated.

This week's list includes the following name:

Thirteen Juveniles Arrested For Obstructing L.G. Sidewalks

Thirteen juveniles, eleven from Lemon Grove, were arrested and cited Tuesday afternoon by sheriff's deputies for "Obstructing Public Sidewalk."

The thirteen were milling about in the 7800 block on Broadway near Winchell's Donuts at 7863 Broadway, in Lemon Grove.

Deputies said the juveniles, ranging from 13 to 15 years of age, were forcing citizens to weave through the group and some were being jostled. Others were forced to step off the curb, officers said.

The area has long been a gathering place for youngsters and deputies have been cleaning it up. A new County Ordinance, referring to congregating and loitering, was used in the arrests.

The ordinance, adopted in September, 1968, is to prevent any person from standing, sitting on any curb, sidewalk, street or highway, shopping center or public property or property dedicated to public use, in any manner that will obstruct free use or passage.

It also prevents such persons from hindering, annoying, or molesting any persons or pedestrians or obstructing in any way, entrance or passage to any public building.

The teenagers were held at the Sheriff's office at 7859 Broadway and parents were required to come to accept custody of the offenders.

Each was advised that a second arrest would result in placing the offender in juvenile hall.

Officers who took part in the arrest said that many youngsters are throwing debris on the sidewalk and street in the area. They said that provisions of the anti-littering law are now being enforced.

Littering violators will be arrested on misdemeanor charges, deputies said.

SHARP RISE IN GONORRHEA

Drugs Kill 4 Persons In San Diego County In 1968 As Problem Increases

Drug abuse led to the death of a San Diego County teenage youth and three men during the past year. According to Dr. J. B. Askew, S.D. Dept. of Public Health.

The year 1968 also saw a sharp rise in the number of cases of gonorrhea reported in residents of the county, a continued upswing in births, the lowest number of cases of measles ever reported here, and an encouraging decline in the number of laboratory confirmed cases of animal rabies. said Dr. Askew, as director of public health, said drug abuse and venerial disease were the two most serious public health problems of the year.

Of 84 cases of serum hepatitis reported in the county through the reporting year ending Dec. 27, he said at least 76 were believed related to the use of drugs. Thirty of these drug related cases occurred in teen-agers.

"Serum hepatitis occurs when the disease organism is transmitted from one person's blood stream to another's, Dr. Askew said. "This frequently occurs in using a needle contaminated by a previous drug user for self-injection of drugs."

"A 19-year-old San Diego County youth who died this year of serum hepatitis admitted using habituating drugs," Dr. Askew said. "It would appear that he became infected with serum hepatitis as a direct result of his drug habit."

Drug abuse led to the deaths of three other men, 28, 33 and 20 years of age. Each died of self-administered overdose of drugs. The drugs involved were heroin, morphine and barbiturates.

VD PROBLEM INCREASES

In giving VD statistics for the year, Dr. Askew said the number of cases of gonorrhea reported among civilian residents of San Diego County had risen 30 percent from 1,741 cases in 1967 to 2,273 in 1968. On average, one out of every four cases occurred in a teenager.

Dr. Askew praised those junior and senior high schools throughout the county which have included VD education in their curriculum. "We believe that education is the ultimate solution to the VD poblem," he said.

"Persons who know the facts about VD will seek medical treatment if they become infected. Only through medical treatment can the chain of infection be broken."

BIRTHS INCREASE IN SAN DIEGO COUNTY

Births, which in 1967 rose in San Diego County for the first time in six years, continued their upswing in 1968. Dr. Askew said that with birth records still coming in, it looks as though some 22,360 births will be recorded in the county for 1968.

A total of 21,892 babies were born here in 1967.

Reported cases of measles in the county dropped from 196 in 1967 to 47 in 1968. Dr. Askew attributed this all-time low to widespread immunization against measles by private physicians.

He said that the Department of Public Health gave more than 10,000 measles immunizations at its clinics during the year.

He emphasized that it is important for parents to take children as soon as they are one year of age to their family physician for measles immunization.

"It is a mistake to wait," he said, "until a child is old enough to go to school. Measles takes its heaviest toll among babies and very young children."

Senior Citizens Get Cut In Medicare Aid

Older people from Lemon Grove and Spring Valley who enter the hospital under Medicare on Jan. 1, 1969, or after, will have to pay more for their care, according to Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Oto said that the hospital insurance deductible — the amount each beneficiary must pay towards each benefit period stay in a hospital — will be increased from $40 to $44.

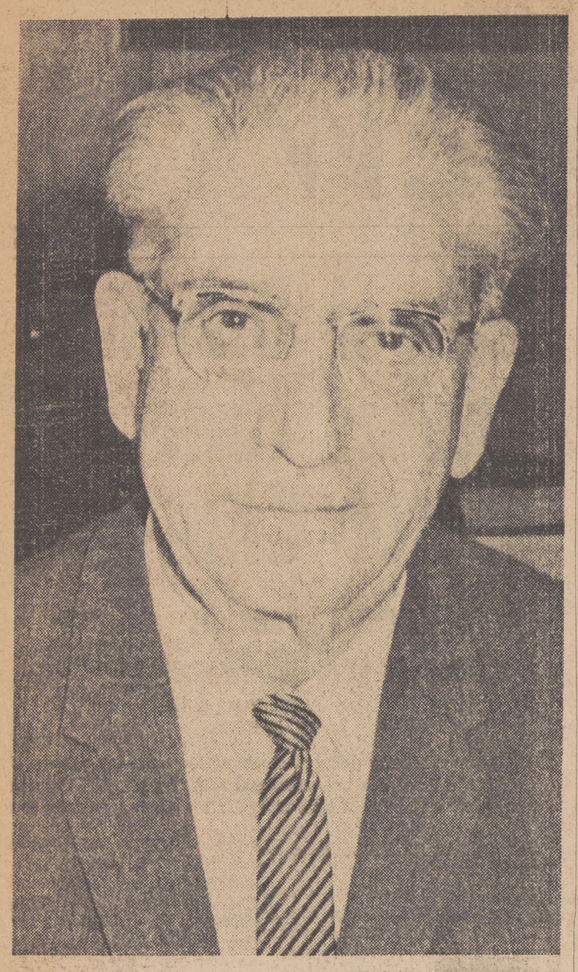
If a Medicare patient stays in the hospital more than 60 days, Oto said, he will have to pay $11 instead of $10 a day for the 61st through the 90th day.

If the stay goes beyond 90 days, the patient will pay $22 a day for each of his 60 "lifetime reserve' 'days used, also up 10 per cent from current rates.

The 10 per cent increase also applies to post-hospital extended care benefits, Oto pointed out. This means that Medicare patients will pay $5.50 a day, instead of $5, for the 21st through the 100th day in a skilled nursing home.

Oto also indicated that the changes in these amounts apply only to the Hospital Insurance part of Medicare and do not affect the financing of the Medical Insurance part — the voluntary program which covers doctor bills and a wide variety of other medical expenses.

Oto explained that the increases were necessary because of increased costs for patient care. He said that the hospital bill for an average stay by a Medicare beneficiary now runs about $600.



Dr. John T. Chase, Minister

Christian Church Marks 6th Birthday On January 26th

On Sunday, Jan. 19, some 150 persons from the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley-La Mesa area will celebrate the sixth anniversary of the Christian Church of Lemon Grove.

The congregation, under the watchful eyes of Dr. John T. Chase, minister of the church, operates as a conservative, independent Christian Church.

They meet in temporary quarters through the cooperation of the Seventh Day Adventists of La Mesa. The group gathers for worship in the Adventist's building at 4207 Palm ave., La Mesa.

According to Dr. Chase, his congregation has on the planning board a new home that will be located on San Miguel ave. in Lemon Grove.

Rev. Chase said that the San Miguel site is now in escrow. Plans are being formulated for a unit that will house 200 persons and that will have a social gathering facility. He said that a santuary will follow at a later date.

FUNDAMENTAL GROUP

Dr. Chase said that his group is made up of people who are fundamental in the acceptance of the Bible as being the Word of God.

He pointed out that his group is cooperative in that they seek to cooperate with all who love the Lord, finding unity in submission to the Lordship of Jesus Christ as expressed in the New Testament.

He said that the congregation is independent in that they owe allegiance to no agencies, boards or societies. He said that they have no council that they must be responsible, too.

Rev. Chase said, "We are responsible only to our King-Jesus Christ."

The Christian Church congregation is missionary minded. They support directly individuals and agencies who are faithfully preaching "the faith once for all delivered to the saints", according the Rev. Chase.

The missionary spirit is expressed in Dr. Chase's personal background. He and his wife were working as missionaries in Japan in 1927.

After spending eight years in Tokyo, Japan, they traveled to Korea where they laid the groundwork for some 100 churches, four colleges and five orphanages.

While working as missionaries the Chase's had enlarged their family. They had two children while in Japan and another two while in Korea. One was later born in the United States.

After 17 years as missionaries, they returned to the United States. Dr. Chase became minister of the Christian Church in Downey, Calif. where he spent another 17 years of service to his flock.

COMMUNITY SERVICE COMMENDATION

While in Downey, he was presented with a certificate of commendation for his community service.

Dr. Chase said that he and his wife will travel to Downey this Sunday to celebrate the centenial of that congregation.

The minister pointed out that his group, who have no church history to speak of, has an active program for area residents. He said that Bible School classes for all age groups are conducted each Sunday.

A group of youngsters, numbering around 25 are under the direction of Miss Winona Heimaster, a graduate of Colorado Bible College.

Another group, consisting of adults come under the instruction of Dr. Chase. He teaches a group of 24 adults in a class for Christian Builders.

The local pastor said that his congregation is not affiliated with the Disciples of Christ and is not in any way involved in the recent enacted "Restruction Program", he pointed out.

He said, "If you believe in the Gospel, if you love the Lord, you will find a warm congenial atmosphere permeated in our congregation."

The temporary office for the church is located at the rear of 8275 Adams st., Lemon Grove.

Grove Lioness Get Life-saving Lesson

Members of the Lemon Grove Lioness Club have learned about the latest life-saving techniques.

Meeting last night at the Lemon Grove Teappot Inn, members of the club heard life-saving techniques detailed and demonstrated by Tom Laskoski. Laskoski is a member of Pacific Telephone's lecture-demonstration team.

Laskoski implemented his discussion of mouth-to-mouth resuscitation techniques with the use of a life-sized model, which served as a demonstration prop. Members of the audience also participated in the program.

Chairman for the program was Mrs. George W. Jenkins.

Lord Of Life Lutheran Loyalty Dinner Set For Friday Night

Lord of Life Lutheran Church, Apple st. and Luther dr. on Dictionary Hill in southern Spring Valley, will hold a Congregational Loyalty Dinner on Friday, Jan. 10, at 6:30 p.m. at the Sir George's Smorgasbord Restaurant, 6942 University ave., La Mesa.

All confirmed members of the congregation have been invited to attend. The Loyalty Dinner is being held in connection with a special Resident Counselling Program being conducted in the congregation this week.

Art Gerlock, of Palo Alto, Calif., has been serving the congregation this week as instructor, initiating a special stewardship emphasis at Lord of Life Lutheran Church.

Gerlock is a resident counselor on the Stewardship Staff of the American Lutheran Church.

The purpose of the program, according to Rev. R. D. Thoreson, pastor of the local congregation, is to "increase the spiritual vitality of each of the members of Lord of Life Lutheran Church through a series of congregational meetings, Bible studies, and home visitations."

Pastor Thoreson reports that other congregations of The American Lutheran Church who have sponsored such programs have experienced a median increase in per capita giving of about 70%.

The entire program is orientated around a system of Bible study which involves every member of the congregation.

Members of Lord of Life Lutheran Church who are serving as committee chairmen for the program are: Bill Riddle, General Chairman; Fred and Sylvia Rivinius, Visitation Co-Chairmen; Helen Larson, Arrangements Chairman; Carol Nyquist, Hostess Chairman; and Lee Dargavell, Public Relations Chairman.

The Program concludes this Sunday, with the home visitation on Sunday afternoon of every member family of the congregation.

Christian Scientists Slate Sunday Service

A comunmion service will be held this Sunday in Christian Science Society of Lemon Grove, 7741 Pacific ave. The service will begin at 11 a.m. and is open to the community.

The Lesson-Sermon is titled "Sacrament," and the Golden Text is from I Samuel: "Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams."

Included will be readings from the Christian Science textbook Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy.

Wind Group Concert Is January 12

The Grossmont College Music Department will present a concert by the Wind Groups under the direction of Charles MacLeod at 8 p.m., Sunday, Jan. 12 in the Student Center. Included in the concert will be performances by the Grossmont College Concert Band Stage Band, Brass Choir, and Clarinet Choir.

The Clarinet Choir will open the program with "Sarabande and Corrente" by Correli Barnes, followed by "Andande From Italian Symphony" by Mendelssohn-Logan, and "Allegro Assai" by Mendelssohn Barnes. The Brass Choir will play Klein's "Sonata" and "Five Miniatures for Brass Quintet" by Starer.

The Concert Band will play "Overature to Titus" by Mozart-Krance, selections from "William Byrd Suite" by Byrd Jacob, selections from "Suite Francaise" by Milhaud, and "Symphony for Band" by Persichetti.

The Stage Band has chosen to play Cobine's arrangement of "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair," "Three Coins in the Fountain" by Cahn, "Adagio and Riffination" by Ray Miller, and "Blow In" by Schon to conclude the concert.

The public is invited to hear a variety of musical selections performed by students enrolled in the college Music Department's Wind Groups. There is no admission charge.

Carol Repard Is Married To Robert Peters

Miss Carol Arlene Repard became the bride of Robert Dale Peters in an evening ceremony Dec. 26, at Los Novios Chapel, La Mesa, with Rev. Herbert Johnson of Lemon Grove Lutheran Church officiating.

Carol is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manford Repard of 2041 El Dora, Lemon Grove. Robert is the son of Mrs. Helen Peters.

Bridal attendant was Nila Repard, sister of the bride. Alex Weber served as best man.

The couple will reside in La Mesa.

This Sunday

Always and Everywhere

Let no one imagine that it is a strained and unnatural thing for one to pray. The contrary is much closer to the fact. It is far more unnatural for one not to pray. Prayer is one of the most natural of human instincts. Prayer is man's response to the divine will.

HOLDAY WEDDING — A pre-Christmas ceremony was chosen for the marriage of Celeste Carlisle and Gene L. Cassidy. The couple was wed at the Lemon Grove Methodist church Dec. 20. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thomas Warmer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Compagna, of 1500 Skyline dr., Lemon Grove. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Cassidy of San Diego. The bride attended Mt. Miguel High school and City College. Mr. Cassidy attended Crawford High school and Mesa College. He is associated with the S.D. Gas & Electric Co. Following a honeymoon to Los Angeles, the couple took up residence at 5260 Clairemont Mesa blvd., San Diego

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED: Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Davis, 2210 Debco dr., Lemon Grove have announced the engagement of their daughter Michele Gay Davis to Michael Charles Grimm of La Mesa. A wedding date of Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. has been set at the First United Methodist Church, Mission Valley. A reception will follow at the Marine Officers' Club, MCRD, San Diego. Miss Davis is a graduate of Mt. Miguel High School and attended San Diego City College. Grimm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Grimm of 4241 Loma Del Sur, La Mesa, is a 1965 graduate of Mt. Miguel High School. He has received the Distinguished Service Cross for action in Vietnam, along with three purple hearts, two bronze stars and the Silver Star (1968). He is currently a 1st. Lieutenant in the Marine Corps and is slated to take on Captain bars in March.

Miss Margaret E. Osterberg Wed To James M. Buchmiller

Miss Margaret Eileen Osterberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Osterberg, 7621 Circle dr., Lemon Grove, became the bride of James Michael Buchmiller, of El Cajon Saturday morning in a wedding held at the St. John of the Cross Church, Lemon Grove.

The morning ceremony, officiated by the Rev. Patrick Kearney who united the two in wedlock. Buchmiller, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Buchmiller, 505 Trenton st., El Cajon.

Miss Osterberg is a graduate of Rosary High School. She is attending Grossmon College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Granite Hills High School and is also attending Grossmont College.

Matron of Honor for the wedding was Ann Latulippe, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Mary Kay Guppy, sister of the bride, and Ninelle Buchmiller, sister of the groom.

Best man was Robert Stillwell. Ushers were Jim Schittig, and Jack Osterberg, brother of the bride. Flower girl was Jeanine Latulippe.

The bride was dressed in Ivory velvet in the tudor style with a high standing collar and a draped train. She had a beaded headpiece with a jewel braid and tear seed pearls.

She carried a bouquet of pine broughs with white butterfly roses.

TO WED: Miss Mary Lucinda Codina, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony E. Codina, 2337 Cypress ave., Lemon Grove will be married to Gilbert F. Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

by James Hardison

What is the origin of the word California? Does it have any real meaning? Who was the first to write about California?

There are many variations in ideas regarding the origin of the name California. Some Spanish scholars relate the origin to the words "cali" for "hot" and "fornaz" for "furnace," thus "hot furnace."

Other scholars attribute the origin of the word California to a Spansih writer, Ordonez de Montalvo, who in 1510 described California as an island which supposedly lay "to the right hand as you sailed towards the Indies."

Ordonez' book, Las Sergas de Esplandian, was a best seller of the day and told about how California was ruled by black Amazons whose queen was Calafia.

Ordonez had a vivid imagination which reached the most adventurous minds of Spain.

Within a few years after the release of Ordonez' book, Cortes and Cabrillo made reference to the California in their writings as they began the exploration of the area.

These explorers assisted in perpetuating the name which has lasted over four hundred years. "Viva California!" (Long live California)

Some phrases that the earlier explorers might have used are given below. See if you can learn to say them with the help of the recorded voice when you dial 276-2762 on your telephone.

IMPORTANT PHRASES
Say "Le gusta California?" (LEH GOOS-tah kah-lee-FOHR-nee-ah)
for "Do you like California?"
Say "Me gusta mucho." (meh GOOS-tah MOO-choh) for "I like it very much."

USEFUL PHRASES
Say "Es un estado?" (ehs oon eh-STAH-thoh) for "Is it a state?"
Say "Como no! (KOH-moh noh) for "Of course."

OTHER PHRASES
Say "Tiene mucha gente?" (tee-EH-neh M O O-c h a h HEHN-teh)
for "Does it have many people?"
Say "Es muy grande." (ehs MOO-ee GRAHN-deh)
for "It is very large."

Parent Teachers Schedule

Foothills Council

The Foothills Secondary Counci, C.C.P.T. will meet Jan. 15, at 10 a.m. at the La Mesa Presbyterian Church, 4426 Harbinson, La Mesa.

There will be election of the nominating committee, Founders Day Program and Honorary Life Awards, followed by a potluck luncheon.

San Miguel

The San Miguel PTA will meet in the school cafetorium, today at 7:30 p.m.

The speaker will be Dave Crippens, assistant director of the Educational Opportunities Program at San Diego State College. He received his B.A. from Antioch College in Yellow Springs, Ohio and his M. S.W. from San Diego State College.

Mrs. Arthur Durson is in charge of the program, under the direction of Mrs. Duane Quinn, PTA president.

Rev. Ernest Fowler of the Lemon Grove Congregational Church will bring the inspiration. Cub Scout Den 4 of Troop No. 338 will lead the flag ceremony under the direction of Charles Harris.

Mrs. Jack Simmons, safety chairman, asks the cooperation of parents to encourage all San Miguel students who live east of Massachusetts, to cross at San Miguel ave. where the safety patrol is stationed.

There is a possibility that a caution light will be installed at this intersection in the future, but extreme caution is urged for all drivers and pedestrians in this area.

Approximately three-million silver dollar coins are being held in storage by the U. S., and officials are undecided what to do about putting them into circulation, at least to coin collectors. It has been proposed they be sold at premium prices and the profits turned over to the treasury or to charity.

Peace Corps Exams Area Candidates

Lemon Grove-Spring Valley residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps Placement Test at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 18 at Room 302, 601 A st., San Diego.

The Peace Corps uses the Placement Test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement.

The test requires no preparation and is non-competitive; an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

Persons interested in serving with the Peace Corps must fill out an Application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before the test.

Application forms are available from post offices or from the Peace Corps in Washington, D.C. 20525.

Fifteen thousand Volunteers are currently serving in Asia, Africa, Latin America and the Pacific Islands, working with the people of those nations in self-help projects ranging from food production to health to education.

More Volunteers are needed for programs which will begin this spring and summer.

Molly Pitcher's real name was Mary Ludwig Hays, but she got the nickname for carrying water in a pitcher from a well near where her husband and other soldiers were fighting in the American Revolution.

Founders' Day Marked By S.V. Woman's Club

The Spring Valley Woman's Club celebrated Founders' Day last night with a luncheon at the Bronze Room in La Mesa.

Mrs. Robert R. Graham. club member and a member of the Spring Valley Community Council gave a talk on the kick-off of the 200th Anniversary Celebration for San Diego.

Her talk also included "The Past, Present and the Future of Spring Valley." Mrs. Graham was introduced by Mrs. I. W. Butterfield, program chairman for the club.

Mrs. Orville Reese, of Lemon Grove, president of the Southern District 26 Calif. Federation of Woman's Clubs was on hand as the honored guest. Also honored were past presidents of the local Woman's Club.

Social Security News

This newspaper presents this question and answer column about the Social Security program as a public service to our readers. The questions are those most frequently asked about Social Security.

The answers are provided by Sumio Oto, El Cajon Social Security District Manager.

Q. I am a 42 year-old factory employee and expect to earn about $9,000 next year. How much will be deducted from my pay for social security tax?

A. Starting in January 1969, your social security contributions rate will be 4.8 percent of the first $7,800 of your annual wages, for a total of $374.40.

Q. Are there any situations in which Medicare will pay for a private hospital room?

A. Yes. The Medicare program will pay for a private room when it is medically necessary. For example, heart attacks and certain diseases may require isolation of the patient for certain periods. Payment for the private room is limited to the days which isolation is required.

Q. I am in my fifties and am planning for retirement. How can I estimate what my Social Security benefits will be?

A. Contact your local Social Security office and ask for Leaflet SSI-47. This leaflet explains in simple terms how to estimate your future benefits.

Q. I will be 65 in four months. I have Blue Cross-Blue Shield coverage now. Would there be any benefit in applying for medicare?

A. Many health insurance plans modify or change your coverage when you become 65. You should ask your insurance representative about this and get in touch with your social security office no later than three months before you reach 65.

If you have further questions regarding the Social Security Law, contact or write the Social Security District Office, 570 North Second st., El Cajon.

The office is open from 8:30 a.m. until 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday and until 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. The telephone number is 442-0851.

National Heart Institute Grant Made At UCSD

A National Heart Institute Program Project grant of just under $5-million has been received by the UCSD School of Medicine it was announced by Dr. Clifford Grobstein, Vice Chancellor for Medicine and Biological Science and Dean of the School of Medicine.

Under the research program, which will be projected over a five-year period, an intensive study will be made of heart and lung diseases as well as the normal function of the cardiopulmonary systems.

The national significance of this program is revealed in part by recent figures showing that approximately 45,000,000 Americans suffer from heart and respiratory diseases.

Little League Holds Registration In L.G. On January 18, 25

Registration for boys wanting to play baseball in the Lemon Grove Little League will be taken on Saturday, Jan. 18 and Jan. 25 from 9 a.m. to noon each day at the Little League park.

The park is located behind the Montery Heights Elementary School. Robert Maxwell, president of the league said that a general meeting will be held on Jan. 13 at 7:30 p.m. at the San Miguel School.

Any persons interested in helping out with supervision, or in other capacities are urged to attend the meeting. Maxwell also said that registrations will be accepted at that time.

Grider, and his partner, Wallace M. Hunt, both of Santa Ana, have purchased the San Diego Convalescent Hospital, at 3780 Massachusetts, Lemon Grove, from the Youngflesh brothers. Mrs. Menzer, R.N. will remain as director of nurses and acting administrator.

94-Bed Convalescent Hospital Sold Here

Sale of the 94 bed San Diego Convalescent hospital at 3780 Mssachusetts, was announced this week jointly by the buyers and sellers. The amount of the sale was not revealed.

The sellers are the four Youngflesh brothers who built the hospital 8 years ago. They came to Lemon Grove from Ohio by the way of Pasadena where they operated a general contracting firm.

The new operators are Hoyt Crider and Wallace M. Hunt, operator of two other hospitals. These are Chapman Harbor Convalescent hospital at Garden. Grove, and Cherrylee Lodge Sanitarium at El Monte.

The Youngflesh brothers are presently neck-deep in building the Ramada Inn hotel, now under construction on Harbor Island. The $4,500,000, 345 room tourist facility will open in July. They will be owner-operator.

Crider is a former administrative analyst for the County of Los Angeles who went into the construction business. He once served overseas with U.S.C. in a technical assistance program in Terheran in which he helped set up government budgets.

Hunt has been in the public accounting field since 1949. He has always operated his own business as a licensed certified accountant. He became interested in hospitals five years ago and joined with Crider about 16 months ago.

Each man will spend about one-half of each week in Lemon Grove.

The pair said no changes in personnel operation of the hospital is anticipated.

Dog Clinics Will Be Held Next Week

Dog owners are reminded that the annual public rabies clinic start next week.

Clinics are sponsored by the San Diego County Veterinary Medical Association and dogs will be vaccinated with a two-year vaccine at a non-profit fee of $1.50 without cost to the taxpayer. Cash is required. No checks will be accepted.

Locally, clinics will be held from 7-9 p.m. In Spring Valley one will be held Tuesday at the Casa de Oro Fire Station, 10102 Ramona dr.; in Lemon Grove it will be Wednesday at San Altos school, 1750 Madera, and in Jamul, Wednesday, at Los Flores school.

In La Mesa it will be held Tuesday at the L. M. Swimming Pool.

Veterinarians administering the vaccinations are members of the S.D. County Veterinary Medical Association and are donating their time.

Owners are reminded that food should be withheld from their dog four hours prior to the clinics and that dogs must be on leash.

Dogs, four months of age, or older and not having had one for two years are required by law to have an up-to-date vaccination.

One and two year licenses will be available.

Deadline for license renewals in Jan. 31.

Senator M. Dymally Is Open Forum Guest

Mervyn M. Dymally, the first Negro in California's history to be elected to the State Senate, will address the San Diego Open Forum, Sunday evening, Jan. 12, on "The Negro in American Politics." The program will be held at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the First Unitarian Church, 4190 Front st.

Senator Dymally was first elected to the Assembly in 1962, re-elected in 1964, and elected to the senate in 1966.

The emergence of Negroes to top spots in the body politic is itself a challenge to the establishment, according to the senator.

"Challenges to the Establishment" is the current theme of the Open Forum now conducting its 49th season of discussion programs.

Teenagers Ready Campaign March

The hope ahead for preventing birth defects is the reason why Helen Hudnall of Ramona is planning to lead a full-scale teenage drive to support the Jan. fund raising campaign for the March of Dimes.

Miss Hudnall, a sophomore at Ramona High, was named yesterday as county chairman of the Teenage Program for the voluntary health agency. "Our campaign theme is 'Teens Go MOD', and by that we wean March of Dimes," Miss Hudnall said.

"As future parents, we are aware that not every baby is born perfect," she said, "so it is important that we help those who seek to prevent these tragedies. Some birth defects can be prevented even today, and nearly all birth defect victims can be helped through early diagnosis and expert treatment.'

She stressed that contributions to the March of Dimes provided dividends to the nation and the community. "Money raised for the March of Dimes goes toward birth defect research and there is no better example of that here than at our own Salk Institute."

The March of Dimes drive will continue through Jan. 31 with the annual Mothers March as the concluding event.

LOCAL ENTRIES EXPECTED

Junior World Golfing Association Opens Registration For Youths

Entries are now open for the second annual Junior World Golf Championships that will be held on Aug. 25-29 at Torrey Pines and three other local courses.

The first Junior World tournament, held last August, drew 479 players from seven nations and 22 states. Competition is open to both boys and girls in four age groups — 10-and-under, 11-12, 13-14, and 15 through 17.

Greg Olson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Olson of Lemon Grove was the sole representative in the Junior World contest last year. He bowed out in the third day of the four day contest.

"The '69 Junior World should draw more entries than the '68 tournament, with a wider spread of international representation," John W. Brown, president of the sponsoring San Diego County Junior Golf Assn. said.

Andrew McConnell, 11, of Bournemouth, Engand, already has entered the second Junior World, Brown said. Andy will, however represent the Golf Club of Lebanon at Beirut, because his father, Jock, is there for an extended period appearing in an ice show.

Brown said the JGA is sending entry information and applications to 51 foreign nations where golf is played, and also to many golf clubs throughout the United States.

The tournament will use Torrey Pines South course for the 15-17 division, Balboa Park Municipal course for the 13-14 players, Mission Bay Golf Course for the 11-12, and Presidio Hills course for the 10-and-unders.

Entry fees are $5 for the two lower age groups, and $10 for the 13-14 and 15-17 divisions. Deadline for entries is Aug. 4.

Mrs. A. S. Smith, tournament director, said entries will be limited in the 15-17 and 13-14 groups.

Entrants in those divisions must be able to average these scores: Boys 15-17 — 82, Girls 15-17 — 95, 13-14 — 88, and Girls 13-14 — 105.

"The entrant's scoring average must be verified by their home course professional," Mrs. Smith said. The two lower age groups will play 54 holes, ending competition Thursday, Aug. 28.

The two older groups will play 72 holes. Those make the "cut" at the 54-hole mark, will play their final round at South Torrey Pines.

Entry information and entry applications are available from the San Diego County Junior Golf Assn., 4375 Temecula st., San Diego, Calif. 92107.

Spring Valley Youth Basketball League Opens Play At Miguel

The Spring Valley Recreation-Park District Youth basketball leagues went into action last night at Mt. Miguel High School as the Falcons challanged the Hawks in "B" League action.

At the same time the Red Dogs took on the Celtics in Class "C" play. In a game that started at 7:45 p.m., the Raiders took on the Fighting Irish in "B" play while the Jr. Rockets took on the Bullets in "C" play.

Church League Opens Preseason Tourney Play

The Heartland YMCA basketball preseason tournament got off to a quick start Monday night when the Spring Valley Assembly of God hoopsters dumped the Lord of Life Lutheran Church, 46-36.

In other games, the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church entry slammed the Spring Valley Shepard of the Valley Church club 48-18. The teams, playing in a round-robin tournament, used the Grossmont High School gym.

High scorers for the Lord of Life Lutheran team was James Stearns with 23. Leading the Lemon Grove Lutheran Church on to victory were Mark Swanstrom with 15 points and Jeff Boutelle with 14.

In another game, Lakeside Presbyterian edged out the La Mesa Faith Chapel team 38-31. High scorer in that game was Mark Colliar with 22 points.

The teams will move into regulation league action Monday, Jan. 16 at Grossmont High School. Nine teams are in the league.

Water Ballet Classes Slated At Copley 'Y'

The Ira C. Copley YMCA, 3901 Landis st., San Diego, will be conducting Water Ballet Classes for girls 8 years of age and older. Classes will start January 9th. They will be held each Thursday from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the indoor, heated pool at the Copley "Y".

Instructor for the course is Mrs. Priscilla Rose who has taught Ballet Swimming in the San Diego area for some years.

Advanced swimming skills are not required for the course, but an intermediate card or better is required. The course will include an initial testing session of aquatic skills in the crawl, (front and back), breast and side strokes, under-water swimming and standing front dive.

Water Ballet Instruction will eventually work into Synchronized Swimming for both exhibition and competition. For further information about these Water Ballet Classes for girls 8 years of age and over, please call the Copley YMCA, 283-2251.

World Series Film Available To Many Clubs

"Fantastic." A single word describes the 1968 World Series highlight film, according to San Diego Padres president E. J. "Buzzie" Bavasi.

The 40-minute feature, covering all the thrills of the autumn classic between the St. Louis Cardinals and Detroit Tigers, is now available for viewing.

Groups or clubs may reserve the film, at no charge, by contacting the Padres publicity office at San Diego Stadium or by calling 283-4494. Reservations should be made well in advance of the showing because of the expected heavy viewing schedule.

Produced by Winik Films in association with Major League Baseball Promotions, Inc., the film is narrated by sportscaster Curt Gowdy.

"This has to be the best Series film ever," added Bavasi. "The action and photography are just great. Every baseball fan will have to view this film." In other Padre news, Season Ticket Sales director Joe Ziegler has reported an increase in season sales following the holidays.

"Our major season ticket drive will hit full peak in two weeks," said Ziegler. "While we have topped the thousand mark in season sales, there are still excellent seats available in all price categories."

Fans, wishing to obtain choice locations, are advised to call the Padre office (283-4494) as soon as possible.

ABOUT THE STARS: Dick White, public relations director of the San Diego Rockets was on hand Friday noon at the Spring Valley Rotary Club to give insight into the professional basketball team. White also showed a short film to the group of 25 men. Rotary meetings are held every Friday noon at the Henry Langhorst Restaurant, Jamacha blvd. and Sweetwater Springs blvd., Spring Valley.

Area Weighlifters Clash For Olympic Title Jan. 26

Weightlifters from Spring Valley and Lemon Grove will take part in the Pacific Southwest Olympic Weightlifting Championships starting Jan. 26 at Colina Del Sol Recreation Center in San Diego.

Weighins for the contest will begin at 9:45 a.m. and end at 10:45 a.m. Competition will begin at 11 a.m. tt the center located at 54th and Orange, San Diego.

Ralph Gardner, of La Mesa, who is chairman for the San Diego and Imperial County division of weightlifters said that more than 35 young men will be taking part in the contest.

The competition will see boys starting from 12-years-of-age to 17 years-old taking part in the contest. Deadline for entries has been set at Jan. 23.

In order to be eligible for competition, all athletes must register with the Amateur Athletic Union of the U. S. They must be holders of AAU cards.

If any person wanting to compete, who does not hold a card, may secure one at 2581 Quivera ct., San Diego, or by calling 224-2439. Cost for the national card is $1.50.

All entries should be sent to Ralph Gardner, 5276 Tufts st., La Mesa, 92041. Entry fees amounting to $2.50 must be included and not be sent by personal check.

Trophies will be presented to all first place winners. Medals will be awarded to second and third place winners. Trophies will also be presented to the best lifter and the outstanding team.

Catbirds are related to mockingbirds and thrashers.

Lions Club Sells Gulls Tickets To Aid Fund

The Lemon Grove Lions Club is selling tickets for the Gulls vs. Portland hockey game at the San Diego Sports Arena in order to help raise funds for the Lions youth activity cash account.

Members have some 300 tickets costing $3 each. The club has also slated a buffet lunch at the Tea Pot Inn prior to the game. A bus will be made available at $1 roundtrip to the Arena and back to Lemon Grove.

Bob Russell, president of the Lions Club said that Bud Young, of Youngs Chevron Station, Lemon Grove is in charge of ticket sales.

Persons desiring to attend the game may purchase tickets from any Lion's Club member or by calling Young at 469-9131.

Local Talent Gets Crack At Joining Padres Team

Former major league slugging star Duke Snider, now a batting instructor with the San Diego Padres, will head a panel of talent judges at a two-day tryout camp scheduled by the Padres.

The tryouts will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Jan. 11 and Sunday, Jan. 12 at the baseball field of San Diego Mesa Junior College. The college is located at 9250 Artillery dr., San Diego.

Joining Snider at the camp will be Bob Fontaine, director of Scouting for the Padres and scout and minor league manager Dave Garcia. The camp will be open to all free agent players except those attending four-year colleges and players drafted by any major league club in June, 1968.

Participants are asked to bring shoes, gloves and uniforms. The Padres will supply bats and balls. All high school students wishing to attend the camp must have written permission from their school principals.

Carl Sandburg, poet and biographer of Abraham Lincoln, worked as a newspaperman in Chicago, later was a foreign correspondent and then worked in Cleveland.

Lifesaving Classes For Youngsters

As part of its program of pool-centered activities, the Copley YMCA is offering classes in Junior and Senior Lifesaving for boys and girls as part of its winter program.

The minimum age requirement for this course is 12 years of age. Students must be in sound physical condition, and be able to swim a quarter of a mile demonstrating correctly the crawl, side and breast strokes.

Qualifying candidates can work toward both YMCA and Red Cross cards in Junior Lifesaving. This also applies to Senior Lifesaving cards, with the minimum age requirement of sixteen years for the Red Cross card and fifteen years of age for the YMCA card.

Classes are now open for registration, and all boys and girls 12 years of age and over are invited to call the Copley YMCA for more information about these Junior and Senior Lifesaving Classes. Please call 283-2251.

Monte Vista Sweeps-Up Grossmont Wrestling Tournament Crown

Monarchs Snap 9 Game Losing Streak

By SCOTT McGAUGH
Monte Vista Sports Writer

The Monte Vista High School basketball team snapped a nine-game losing streak to salvage seventh place with a 60-57 victory over the Newport Alumni last Saturday.

The Monarchs had to call on their first half defense along with solid rebounding. They came back to score 37 points in the second half, one of the highest totals for the team this year.

Bill Belander led the winners with a career high of 15 points. Ernie Arroyo and Dan Heine followed with 11 each.

The Monarchs held an 18-7 free throw edge throughout the game. Jim Bristol led the Monarchs with seven points from the charity line.

In earlier action, the Monarchs lost to top-seeded El Madera in the first round of the tournament, 48-44.

El Madera led all the way as the Monarchs never threatened until late in the game when they cut the deficit to two points. El Madera then went into a semi-stall for the final two minutes for the win.

The Monarchs then came back against Corona Del Mar High School only to get whipped, 71-38, due to a poor first half.

Corona Del Mar raced to a 44-11 lead at intermission as a Monarch man-for-man defense fell apart. Switching to a zone defense, the Monarchs equaled Corona Del aMr's score for the second half.

After winning their first game of the pre-season, the Monarchs lost nine in a row before beating Newport Alumni in the last game of the season.

Mt. Miguel, Helix Take Second, Third

From SCOTT McGAUGH Monte Vista Sports Writer

The Monte Vista High School wrestling team captured the crown at the 6th Annual Grossmont College Invitational Wrestling Tournament Saturday as they marched out in front of 21 other schools to take the title.

In showing their strength, Coach Bill Clauder's Monarchs took six individual titles, one second place and a third place. The local powerhouse continued to dominate action as their junior varsity team came in first place with a 99 point total.

In the freshman division, Helix High picked off top honors with a 90 point talley. The Monarchs were second with 79 points.

Mt. Miguel gave the Monarchs a run for their money as they came in second in both varsity and junior varsity play. Their freshmen squad eame in fifth place.

Helix in taking the third place win in varsity action, scored 63 points. Monte Vista making a sweep in the match scored 114 points while Mt. Miguel with their second place picked up 86 in varsity play.

Setting the pace for the Monarchs was Bob Skidmore, who was named as the tournament's outstanding wrestler. Skidmore turned in three pins in the 151-pound division.

Dan Kida, representing Monte Vista, and the top wrestler on the Monarch squad, picked off high honors in the 118-pound division by pinning three oponents. Kida has a reputation as being one of the top wrestlers in the county this year.

In the 143-pound class, Monarch wrestler Larry Millard nipped a Mt. Miguel wrestler to win three falls in route to his individual championship bid.

Jerry Tancil, of Monte Vista, took top honors in the 109-pound class while Terry Lyer won the 132-pound division for the Monarch bid.

DALE SISCON WINS MATCH

Dale Siscon of Mt. Miguel picked off a 4-0 decision in the 101-pound class. Other Matador varsity scoring came from Fred Taylor who picked off third place in the 109-pound class.

Marty Ellis took a fourth place for Mt. Miguel in the 125-pound division while Bill Krammer came in third in the 132 division. Robbie Brown took a fourth in 138-pound competition while Dennis Romero came in second in the 143-pound bout.

Doug Howarth took a fourth place in the 151-pound play while Ron Kraft came in second in 160 action. Chris Wilhite came in second in 171-pound action while Billy Joe Winchester closed out varsity scoring for Mt. Miguel with a third place spot in the 221-pound division.

Ned Blass is wrestling coach for the Matadors.

Helix scoring under the direction of Bob Lucas, coach, was highlighted by a first place win in the 125-pound class by Bill Vaughn. He was backed by Tim Shaeffer, who came in second in the 118-pound division.

Larry Davidson of Helix took a third in the 138-pound contest while Chris Ehrantrant fourth in the 160-pound arena with Dave Hoff closing out varsity scoring for the Highlanders with a second place in the 186-pound play.

Monte Vista's John Tancil, after getting over a battle with the flu, came in second place in the 221-pound heavy weight division.

JUNIOR VARSITY ACTION

In junior varsity play Fred Blocker of Monte Vista took first place in the 125-pound class; Ted Fleury second in the 118-pound division and Bob Fullter took a third place in the 138-pound contest.

Other Monarchs scores were turned in by Mark Ariol, with a second place in the 143-pound class; Tom Cote, a third, in the 151-pound division, and Vince Camppoli a second in the 160-pound line.

Monarch Richard Weathers took first place in the 171-pound action while George Vila took a third in the 186-pound circle. Bill Paine closed out jv scoring for Monte Vista with a second play in the heavyweight division.

Mike Mendez of Mt. Miguel won the 132-pound crown in jv action, while teammate Mark Schuff captured the 143-pound title. Robert Elms close out scoring for the Matadors with a second place in the 186-pound play.

Bucket Brigade Enters Competition In League Curtain Raiser In S.V.

By JOHN NICHOLSON
Mt. Miguel Sports Writer

Mt. Miguel high school's bucket brigade was slated to entertain Monte Vista high Tuesday afternoon in the Grossmont League basketball curtain raiser for the two teams.

Mt. Miguel, holders of a 7-3 pre-season record were favored to win the game, which would extend their league win streak to 34 games. Miguel has compiled the record over the last three years.

The Matadors dropped Monte Vista 56-46 in a game that saw John Woodward throw in 18 points to lead Mt. Miguel.

Backing him were Ken Barstow with 14, and Charley Gregg with 13 points. Monte Vista's high scorer was Bill Belander with 14 points. Dun Heien pumped in 12 for the Monarchs.

Monte Vista was ahead at half time 22-19. Mt. Miguel passed them up shortly after three minutes had passed in the third period. The Matadors took the lead after Monte Vista had problems with fouls.

Monte Vista's Monarchs will be trying to win against the Matadors for the first time since then, doing the trick in 1966 in a pre-season affair.

Another tilt will be held tomorrow night in Lakeside with El Capitan high, one of the Gossmont League's cellar dwellers for many years. Next Tuesday, Miguel will travel to El Cajon high and on Friday will host Santana.

Miguel's tough competition will start Jan. 21 with a game against Grossmont high school, a team favored to finish higher than Miguel in the league standings.

The big test in league play will come for the Matadors Jan. 28 when they will travel to Helix high school to take on the rugged arch-rival Highlanders.

Mt. Miguel whipped Helix 4 times last year, and the Highlanders will be out for sweet revenge, so you can expect an exciting contest in the offing.

Helix Takes On Monte Vista High Friday Night At Monarch's Court

By TOM WARREN
Helix Basketball Reporter

With their hopes of an undefeated season gone up in smoke, the Helix varsity hoopmen will try to make it look easy tomorrow night, as they take on Monte Vista High on the Monarch courts.

In a game Tuesday night, Helix crushed Grossmont High School 94-62. Dave Unroe poured in 23 to pace the Highlanders to victory.

The Highlanders marched off to a quick 43-25 lead at half time.

Helix will enter the game with a 13-1 record. Their only loss came at the hands of Santa Paula in the Fillmore Invitational, 63-60.

Aided by the return of their potential All-League guard, Bruce Menser, the Scots bounced back to capture the consolation championship in the tourney.

The Monarchs, on the other hand, have been having their problems jelling in recent weeks.

They enter the game with only one victory (at press time) to their credit, that coming in the Newport Beach Tournament.

HEIGHTH IS KEY

A key factor going for the Highlanders in tonight's contest will be their heighth advantage.

The Monarchs only have one player on their squad standing over 6-3, whereas the Scots boast three of their starting five at that heighth or better.

Two of these players are the Walton brothers, Bill and Bruce, who sand at 6-9 and 6-5 respectively.

Next Tuesday Helix will meet El Capitan on the Highlanders' home court.

In that game the Scots will again be trying to put together their balanced scoring attack, in which their five starters, Rave Unroe, Mike Dupree, Bill Walton, Bruce Walton, and Menser have all averaged above ten points per game.

Menser has led the onslaught with a 13.2 scoring average, followed closely by Unroe with 12.9, Bill Walton with 11.3, Bruce Walton with 10.1 and Dupree with 10.1 also.

Grove Group Attends Soccer Coaches Parley

Managers and coaches from two Lemon Grove soccer teams attended a meeting of the San Diego Soccer Coaches Association at the Colina Del Sol Recreation Center in San Diego Monday night.

The group were on hand to discuss the Association's objectives and the future of soccer in San Diego County. Representing the junior division Hawks were Carl Anro and Chriss Christian.

Jim Rex and Jack Pollard representing the Challangers who are in minor division play in the San Diego County Junior Soccer League were also on hand.

Rex is a director for the rounty leavue, while Pollard has been seated as a member of the temporary board of directors for the coaching association.

The group also set up the foundation for a course that will be given ato coaches in the county at San Diego State College starting Feb. 8.

Classes will run from 8:30-10:30 a.m. on Saturday mornings. Persons interested in attending the class are urged to call Pollard at 469-0101 or George Logan at 583-0805.

The Board of Directors
Grossmont Hospital District:

We have examined the balance sheet of the Grossmont Hospital District as of June 30, 1968. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the cirumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet presents fairly the financial position of each fund of the Grossmont Hospital District at June 30, 1968, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year, except as to depreciation described in note 3.

GROSSMONT HOSPITAL DISTRICT
Notes to Balance Sheet
June 30, 1968

(1) Delinquent Property Taxes Receivable

Delinquent property taxes amounting to approximately $2,100 in the bond interest and redemption fund and $28,000 in the capital outlay fund, are fully reserved, and are not included in the accompanying financial statements.

(2) Estimated Refunds to Medicare and Medi-Cal Programs

The District is a participant in the Federal Medicare Program and the California Medical Assistance Program. The billings submitted for payment under these programs are subject to final adjustment based on allowable costs. As of June 30, 1968 provision has been made in the accounts for the estimated amount of such refunds.

(3) Depreciation

During the year ended June 30, 1968, the District initiated the recording of depreciation of the hospitals' property, plant and equipment for current and prior years. The depreciation was computed on the straight-line method. Comparative financial statement figures for 1967 have been modified to reflect depreciation for that year.

(4) Women's Auxiliary

The financial statements do not include the assets, liabilities, fund balance and related financial transactions of the Women's Auxiliary, a related organization which is under the control of the Board of Directors of the District. At the close of its fiscal year, February 29, 1968, the Women's Auxiliary balance sheet reflected total assets of approximately $30,000, liabilities of $300 and a fund balance of $29,700.

Utt Proposes Stamp Sales Be Made Private Enterprise

Congressman James B. Utt (R-35th) has disclosed a major bill he will introduce to the new 91st Congress to effect greater service and convenience to the public and savings to the Post Office Department of an estimated $150 million in the first year of operation.

The House Resolution would amend the United States Code to authorize the Postmaster to license private vending operators and sell postage stamps at a discount to them. All postage would be sold to the public at face-value.

Private operators now have some 300 to 400,000 vending machines serving the public in drug stores, department stores and other high-traffic areas. However, stamp vendors presently charge extra for stamps to cover handling costs and profit.

Utt's bill would establish a flat margin for operators well within their operating costs, but less than recent studies indicate the same tasks now cost the government.

Ray N. Gaines, President of the Stamp Operators of America, an organization of vending machine owners and operators, said the general public would save many additional millions of dollars plus have the benefit of a projected 80 per cent increase in stamp machine locations.

Stamps would be available from an estimated 700,000 machines over a 5 to 10 year period, Gaines said. Stamp purchases at night, on holidays or weekends when post offices are closed would no longer bear an extra tariff to the postal patron.

The set margin on stamps would allow operators to re-evaluate their areas and place machines in areas now considered unprofitable because potential buyers will not pay the additional sum necessary to pay for the machine and service.

Testimony indicated that the Government actually spends 8c in selling a single 5c stamp. In total transactions the cost at post office windows and from Government vending operations remained well above the private vendor average per transaction.

Utt also stated that the bill will tend to alleviate the pressure for additional post office windows and expansion of facilities, delaying and in some cases removing the need for added government sub-stations and other construction.

Personnel remains a critical factor with the Post Office also, and while this will not reduce the work force, it should allow more efficient expenditure of postal employee time in processing and dispatching mail.

The Congressman, recently re-elected to his 9th term in Washington, said the bill had been reviewed to close any loopholes that might invite mis-use of the vending privilege.

While not a part of the bill, Utt said he believed the Postmaster General would best facilitate policing possible infractions by issuing a separate stamp series for sale in vending machines.

Any major postage user would be readily spotted if such stamps were found in heavy use. In addition local postmasters have a fairly clear idea of who are major postage users and how much they do use. Any fall-off would be easily noted.

The opportunity for government to utilize private enterprise does not take away from either's ability, although the licensing and set-margin aspects of the bill limit profit to efficient operations.

However, it is apparent that the private enterprise area has at its command cost-saving techniques presently outside the Department's structure, Utt stated.

Servicemen Gives View Of Europe

By MARY BONNER

It has been said that the best way to learn about other people and their customs is by traveling throughout various nations.

Twenty-one-year-old Army Sergeant James Wesley Board found this out after being stationed in Frankford, Germany for two years.

Wesley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Board of Jamul, was a perimater guard, in charge of armor security.

During the two years he gained many opportunities to travel throughout Europe.

He said that even though it was "cold and miserable" most of the time he felt that he had gained a lot in knowledge of the countries and their people.

About the people, Wesley said that inside of the towns they were generally very unfriendly but when he got outside of the towns they were usually fairly friendly.

POVERTY CAN BE SEEN

Describing the way in which the people live he said that there is poverty everywhere.

Board said that all through Europe they are about 25 years behind the U. S. in the way of progress. "The roads and the farming is especially behind us," he said.

Another thing that surprised him about the people was the fact that it is perfectly acceptable for girls to hitch-hike. He said that there are at least as many girls hitch hiking as boys. "It took me quite awhile to get usted to it," he commented.

Some of the customs that he observed while in Europe had him quite amazed. One seemingly strange custom was the way the people celebrated Christmas.

There was very little enthusiasm put forth by the people. "It was just like any other day," he said.

There are no colored lights to brighten up the holiday; just white ones and they don't sing Christmas carols at all.

They do have a Saint Nick Day in which a Santa Claus clad in regular clothes and shoes underneath a long red overcoat with a wig and beard goes out in the streets and as he passes by the children they run up to him and tell him what they want for Christmas.

He never speaks to them but just shakes a cane at them and continues on his way. What Christmas they do celebrate is done so on Christmas Eve and the tree is not decorated until then.

FLOSHING SEASON

A season that seems to be awaited by most of the people is the "Floshing Season." It starts in Nov. and ends in Feb.

They celebrate it with a series of all night parties and parades in which all the local police leave town.

The parties usually take place about once every two weeks.

The husbands and wives are allowed to separate for the prties and be with whomever they wish but the separation cannot be used for grounds for divorce.

From Sept. 22 through Oct. 6 the people hold a Beer Festival in Geranmy. They have a carnival that usually covers about one square mile. There are carnival rides and ten beer tents that hold about 10,000 people in each one.

"Everyone is allowed to drink, even the little kids," commented Wesley. "It is about 12 to 16 proof, much stronger than what most Americans are used to."

Wesley said that there were many places he visited where he couldn't help but think of how dirty everything appeared.

He said that Spain and Italy seemed the dirtiest. However, he thought of Switzerland as one of the most beautiful places he passed through.

Looking back on the two years that he spent in Europe he said that there were hard times like the months spent in the fields when it was so cold that every time he touched something his fingers seemed to freeze.

However there were also good times when he met interesting people and learned about European people and customs and took in the breathtaking sights.

All this has helped Sergeant Board in life.

200th Anniversary Sports Calendar Slated For County

A complete sports calendar, aim is to keep San Diego in including international, national, regional, state, local, collegiate sporting events will be published by the San Diego 200th Anniversary.

Sports plans for 1969 were discussed at an organizational meeting of the San Diego 200th Anniversary Sports Committee which was formed in 1967 to organize all sports events for the bicentennial.

Lute Mason, San Diego public relations executive was appointed as new chairman of the 200th Sports Committee which has adopted an intense motivation program for 1969.

"Our new committee is action-oriented and will be involved in hundreds of events during 1969," Mason said. "Our the limelight as the sports capital of the world."

Mason announced that Bailey Gallison, Security Pacific National Bank executive, and Richard Tartre, asst. mgr. of E. F. Hutton & Co., in San Diego will serve as vice-chairman.

The new 200th Sports Committee combines members of the Chamber of Commerce Sports Committee, the 200th committee, and media sports figures from throughout the country.

Members of the Chargers, Gulls, Rockets, and Toros have already been made ambassadors during ceremonies planned by the 200th Sports Committee.

Camping Sites Due For Quick Sellout in '69

SACRAMENTO — Choice dates and camping spots may go quickly when 1969 reservations become available for most State Park campgrounds today, State Parks Director William Penn Mott Jr. predicted.

Reservation forms are now available from State Park System units and at state office buildings in major cities throughout California. Forms and information may also be obtained by writing the State Department of Parks and Recreation, P.O. Box 2390, Sacramento 95811.

To make reservations, campers should submit the full camping fee plus a $1 reservation charge at the time of the application.

The parks will accept mailed applications starting today.

Reservations may not be made in person at the parks until after Feb. 28, Mott noted. This is to give equal opportunity to all applicants, no matter how far they live from the park where they wish to camp.

Mott urged campers to mail in the forms as early as possible, to insure availability of space on their preferred dates. Last year one park had all its Easter week camp spots reserved by Jan. 7, and key weekends and popular vacation times were heavily in demand at many parks.

Over 50,000 reservations were made last year, when the program was begun experimentally to help solve the turnaway problem. At Southern California beaches turnaways had been particularly acute, with campers often waiting vainly in line for long periods in hope of a vacancy.

Reaction to the new reservation system was overwhelmingly favorable, Mott said, and even more campers are expected to take advantage of the program this year.

Spaces not filled by reservation will continue to be available on a first come, first served basis, the director emphasized, and many of the less heavily used campgrounds will probably continue to be used largely on this basis.

for law agencies including the police. Court rules or new legislation are recommended. Judges would not be permitted to make any statement that might interfere with the fair trial. Judges could close pre-trial hearings to the public and newspapers if the defendant believes that matters disclosed at the hearing might be inadmissable at the trial.

Justice Reardon says he thought for a long time press-bar guidelines to which all could agree were possible. After two years of effort, he conceded defeat.

Daniel explained why. The TIMES editor accuses Justice Reardon and his colleagues of "using a sledgehammer to kill a gnat," the gnat being "a tiny fraction of criminal cases . . . reported in the press. And in only a fraction of this fraction is there any question of doing violence to the rights of the defendants. This heavy-handedness," Daniel adds, "may wreck freedom of the press as well; it may shatter the very keystone of our democracy."

Daniel says newspapermen have more faith in juries than lawyers have. "The juror who reads incriminating information about a defendant in his newspaper is just as likely to disbelieve the newspaper as he is to disbelieve the defendant—perhaps more likely," he say. "Nowadays, there seems to be a notion that the ideal juror is an intellectual eunuch, totally uninformed and blandly indifferent to his environment."

"I deeply resent, and so do my colleagues, the repeated implication by spokesmen of the legal profession that journalism is a shoddy, money-grubbing business with no morals, no scruples, and no ethics. We newspapermen do not believe that a law degree necessarily makes a man more honorable than a degree in journalism, or that elevation to the bench amounts to canonization."

"We must, in all conscience, resist those parts of the Reardon Report that would make legitimate news unavailable to the public, make trials more secret, and allow judges to dictate what the press might publish," he declares.

"We believe that the presumptious attempt of the American Bar to prescribe rules of conduct not only for itself but also for the police and the press is unwise, unhelpful, unlikely to be effective, and is, in all probability, unconstitutional."

Judge Reardon argues that following his recommendations would lessen the possibility of reversals of convictions of a "goodly number of crooks who ramble about society on the grounds that their causes were prejudiced by publicity about them."

As every newsman can tell the judge — the public, through the free press, has a right to know how its business is being conducted — and that censorship would reduce this right immeasurably.

CHRISTMAS SEALS FUNDS STUDY

New Research Grants Named By Doctor Raymond Downs

Christmas Seal contributions are helping to support an investigation of the effects of a new anti-rejection drug on transplanted lungs, one of six new statewide research grants announced yesterday by Dr. Raymond I. Downs, Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area chairman of the Tuberculosis & Health Assn. of San Diego County.

The new grants brought the Christmas Seal funds devoted to medical research and education in California to a total of $144,275 in 1968.

Each of the state's 42 local TB associations earmarks five per cent of its annual Christmas Seal Campaign contributions for a statewide fund from which a volunteer committee of scientific experts awards grants and fellowships for medical research and support of chest disease teaching in California medical schools, Doctor Downs explained.

Although the technical aspects of lung transplants are largely resolved, the human body still has not been able to overcome the tissue rejection reaction, and no recipients of lung transplants have survived. Coupled with tissue rejection is a decrease in lung volume and increased resistance to air flow in the transplanted lung.

Using a drug known as ALG, anti-lymphocyte globulin, Dr. Richard Anderson of the University of California — Davis, hopes to keep transplanted lungs working long enough and well enough to study fully the changes in pulmonary function.

"We believe that research of this kind will hasten the day when lung transplantation becomes clinically feasible," Doctor Downs said.

Christmas Seal grants awarded earlier in 1968 are supporting a wide range of investigations aimed at unveiling new information about tuberculosis, emphysema, and other respiratory diseases, Doctor Downs pointed out.

Rezoning Denied For LG Acreage

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — A second request for a spot rezone for apartments in a large Lemon Grove section zoned R-2-A (duplex zone) was denied on Tuesday by the county board of supervisors.

This request was for R-3 and was filed by Donald D. Richie for about seven acres at the southeast corner of Berry and Mt. Vernon sts. It was recommended for denial by the planning commission and a number of neighboring home owners.

Zoning Chief John Cassidy said that although the section is zoned for duplexes or two units on 6,000 square foot lots, the actual development of most of the land has been for single family homes.

He said there was no demonstrated need for a zone change. About 105 units could be built on the land, he said, using the neighborhood housing development concept for planned development.

R-3 would have allowed over 300 units.

Lemon Grove's new supervisor Harry Scheidle expressed concern over the lack of a community plan for Lemon Grove that would aid the board in making its decisions.

of animal rabies are now showing an encouraging decline, Dr. Askew pointed out. They have dropped from 63 in 1966 to 3 in 1967 to 13 in 1968.

Dr. Askew continued as he pointed out, that more cases of rabies can be expected to occur in the county. He reminded dog owners that the county is still under rabies quarantine and that all dogs over four months of age are required to be vaccinated against rabies.

HONG KONG FLUE HITS

"We closed out the year," Dr. Askew said, "with an epidemic in San Diego County of upper respiratory infections.

The Public Health Laboratory has identified type A influenza, including the Hong Kong strain, as well as other organisms such as pneumonia and coxsackie B2 viruses. Fortunately, most people are recovering from these infections without serious complications."

A total of 172 new cases of active tuberculosis were reported in the county in 1968 down from 178 cases in 1967 and 197 in 1966.

No diptheria has been reported in San Diego County since 1952.

No smallpox has been reported since 1956.

The last case of polio brought an increase in deaths among San Diego County residents with an estimated total of about 9,025 when all records are in, up from 7,786 in 1967.

The first six leading causes of death remained unchanged in rank order they are: heart, cancer, vascular lesions, accidents, certain diseases of early infancy and suicides.

State Tax Forms Mailed Out

Lemon Grove and Spring Valley residents will be among nearly six million persons to receive their 1968 State income tax forms that are now on their way to them as the Franchise Tax Board completed its annual mailing on Dec. 30.

Most local taxpayers will receive a packet of materials containing Form 540 and an instruction booklet, said Marin Huff, Executive Officer.

However, if a taxpayer has moved since filing his return last year, he will not receive his forms directly in the mail and should plan to pick them up at one of the many distribution points located throughout the State.

An additional five million forms are being mailed to banks, chambers of commerce, some U. S. Post Office facilities, and offices of the State Board of Equalization, the State Department of Motor Vehicles, and the State Department of Employment.

Taxpayers who do not receive forms directly in the mail may pick them up at the above locations or at any office of the Franchise Tax Board, or upon request, they will be sent from the main office at 1025 P st., Sacramento.

Two Here To Attend Nixon Inauguration

Two Lemon Grove families will attend the President's Inauguration in Washington on Jan. 20.

The two are Lemon Grove elementary school superintendent Byron Netzley, of 2324 Golden, and Dr. Frank Gioliotti, of 2785 Gigliotti dr.

Netzley attended Whittier college with Nixon and the two have maintained a friendship over the years. Netzley attended the banquet held for Nixon last week in Los Angeles. He and his wife, Helen, will leave for the inauguration late next week, he said.

Dr. Gigliotti will leave Lemon Grove on the 15th in order to make a speech at the Nixon-Agnew Volunteers luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel on the eighteenth.

During the campaign, Dr. Gigliotti was a member of the national committee of the President-elect's Ethnic committee. His subject, he said, will be "dreams."

The letter by which Dr. Gigliotti was invited said that "no person (had done) more for the election of the two candidates . . ."

While there, he will attend a meeting of the National Association of Evenagelicals Executive Committee of which he is National Vice Chairman.

Old Time Days Plans Disclosed By J Dorman
